

Warbud's top trio

In July, Warbud, one of Poland's biggest construction companies, signed three large contracts. It will build a modern office building of 16,700 sqm in Poznań, for zł.30.7 million by February 2008. On the basis of a zł.47.5 million contract with GTC Korona, Warbud will also construct an A-class office building in Kraków in 14 months. Finally, for more than zł.51.6 million, Warbud will work on Ministry of Internal Affairs and Administration hospital on ul. Wotoska in Warsaw.
